As Santa did not bring the name of the Father of Joseph Turner Sr. again this year I will post it once again in the hope that some one some where will have the answer. I have received answers in the past but they proved not to be correct. There are several trees listing his father as a James Turner but this is not correct.

JOSEPH TURNER SR.

Thanks in advance for any help you may give.

Daughter's name Phoebe (Phebe) indicates possible Quaker roots. Try checking the name Turner in Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, esp. PA.

RUDDLES MILLS CHRISTIAN CHURCH HISTORY

Submitted by Alan Dorschug <ISKI1@aol.com>

The first church in Ruddles Mill was the Stoner Mouth Presbyterian Church, organized in October 1786. Mt. Carmel Christian Church was built in 1822-23. The present Methodist Church was erected about 185O. Also, there was a Presbyterian Church at Shawhan.

The Church of Christ (Christian Church) was organized at Ruddles Mill, in the Fall of 1841.

...The foundation was laid, as Bro. James Fisher lay on his death bed, and being what was called a radical Methodist, by his reading of the Scriptures, was convinced of the truth of the Reformation. He sent for Bro. John A. Gano and on his bed of affliction, confessed the Savior, and expressed a wish to have a Church established, at Ruddles Mill, upon the Bible and the Bible alone. The people united with the Church, at that time were; Sarah Fisher Dimett, Hannah Fisher and Anne Fisher. William Fisher, the father of Bro. James Fisher, confessed the Savior, but refused to submit to immersion, - therefore, he was not received into the Church.

The Church was established, mainly through the efforts of Mr. Gano who succeeded in gathering a substantial following for the Ruddles Mill Christian Church. Other Elders were Samuel Rodgers, Willis O. Collins, Fleming Wyatt and W. A. Stewart. Deacons were Quinca A. Houston, John MeNear, George W. Wyatt, Sr., and George W. Bowen They took their membership to Mt. Carmel, for a while, before the building was completed. They were often refused the use of either House of worship, in Ruddles Mill. The Church lingered along, through many persecutions, from the sects and the world.

Nothing much was done, until the Fall of 1853, when that peerless and noble man, John, T. Johnson, commenced a series of meetings, assisted by Elder Samuel Rodgers, and reorganized the Church and urged the members to start on their new building.

An acre of ground was purchased, from the Dr. Preston Lindsay heirs, for $400.00. David Tate hauled the stone, for the foundation, with a team of oxen. The foundation was laid by Hiram Toadvine. A rectangular, wooden structure was built, at. the cost of $2,700.00 and completed in June, 1855.

A dedication service was conducted, by Bro. R. C. Ricketts, Sr., to one of the largest congregations ever to assemble at Ruddles Mill. There were 66 additions and $800.00 was raised to pay off the Church debt.

In the early years, many revivals were held. In a letter, Bro. John T.

Kentucky, A History of the State, 8th Edition by F.A. Battey and company, 1888, page 998.
In the article about Dr. James P. Turner of Mt. Sterling, Kentucky this is printed:
His father, Joseph Turner, was a native of Virginia and by occupation a farmer. He came to Kentucky about 1828 and located on a farm near Paris, in Bourbon County, where he lived until his death, July 7, 1836. Politically he was a Whig and also a member of the Baptist Church. He married Susannah Parks, also a Virginian by birth, who bore him seven children, the subject of this sketch (Dr. James P. Turner) being the youngest. Mrs. Turner died August 20,1849, a member of the Baptist Church.

Administrator of Joseph's Estate listed in Bourbon County, KY Deed Book 44, Book L, page 215.
Administration of the Estate of Joseph Turner, deceased is granted to Robert Turner, who with James H. McCann, his security, executed bond on the penalty of one Thousand dollars conditions agreeably to law.

Then in Will Book K, is the Inventory of the Estate (Very difficult to read)

Surname: TURNER, PRICE, PARKS

Am looking for descendents of James P. TURNER, M.D., born Dec 4 1828 near Paris in Bourbon County, KY. I do not know his first wife's name, but there were many children I understand.

His second wife's name is my ancestor: she is Margaret PRICE. They had only one child, my grandfather, Edward Felix Turner, who was born in April 1896. James TURNER died before this child was born.

James P. TURNER's parents were Joseph TURNER, farmer who was born in VA acc. to my notes and died July 7, 1836, married to Susanna Parks, also born in VA and died Aug 20, 1849.

I understand there is a TURNER cemetery near Paris in Bourbon Co. Does anyone know the names and dates of those Turners and/or know how I can find out?

Thank you so much! Apparently the children of the first wife of James P. TURNER were not happy with the second marriage and so information was cut off. If those descendents are out there today I'd love to get in touch with them and let you know we did and are still doing the TURNER name proud:)

Early Pioneers

In the southern part of the township was the Parks' Settlement, which might be said to have been the first, but was so soon followed by Labon Pigg and others, that they, too, claim to be among the first. B. D. Parks settled on section 33, Labon Pigg on section 32, John A. Pigg, on section 21, but removed to section 20. Then John Parks, Reuben Parks, William Parks, Benjamin Putnam and Pattison Gordon, who settled on section 15, all came in 1835, and all settled in the south central and western portions of the township. For awhile Chesley Jones, who came in 1831 or 1832, Joseph Potter in 1833, but Chesley Jones lived in Springfield. Thomas Jones also lived in the township in 1836, and settled on section 26, but removed in 1837 to Springfield Township. John Anderson, in the fall of 1835, and that fall and winter came J. P. Turner, James Y. Parks, David Logan, William Witherspoon and Jesse Bunch. The last named, while given as coming that year, must have come in 1833 or 1834, but did not find just where he settled. There were quite a number came in 1837. John Potter settled on section 3. John Anderson on section 2, David Collins on section 10. Cornelius East, Thomas Stewart, F. and Drury Reavis and Andrew Sisk, were among the arrivals. When the year 1838 is reached, that old pioneer preacher, Rev. Daniel Briggs, came and settled on section 10, and organized the Tebo Church and was a man of mark, who left the impress of his strong, rugged nature upon the social and religious character of the people. Richard James, Sr., S. Peeler, James and John Carleton, are among those who located; Henry L. Pigg and James W. Pigg, who afterwards removed to the township, were born on section 25, in Tebo Township. David Collins also came in 1838. Thomas and Robert Briggs came with their father, Daniel W. R. Radford, James H. Renfro, and Talbert Kelsey completing the list.

ANOTHER PIONEER IS DEAD.

Capt. John P. Turner, of Leesville, Enters Into Rest.

Another of the early pioneers of Henry county has been gathered in by the grim reaper whose name is Death.

Capt. John P. Turner, for forty years a resident of the eastern part of the county, departed this life last night, after a long sickness, complicated by the weaknesses of old age.

He was born in Bourbon county, Ky., and came to Henry county in 1844, being united in marriage that same year to a daughter of that old pioneer, Reuben Parks. She died in 1874, and three years later he was married to Mrs. Harriet E. Duggins.

Mr. Turner was universally respected and honored, and his death will be heard of with regret by all residents of Henry county.

Early Pioneers

In the southern part of the township was the Parks' Settlement, which might be said to have been the first, but was so soon followed by Lakon Pigg and others, that they, too, claim to be among the first. Richard James, Sr., S. Peeler, James and John Chilcote, are among those who located; Henry L. Pigg and James W. He was born in Bourbon County, Kentucky, and came to Henry County in 1844, being united in marriage that same year to a daughter of that old pioneer, Reuben Parks. She died in 1874, and three years later, he was married to Mrs. Harriet E. Duggins. Barbara,
Sorry I took so long, I misplaced your email.

Children of Catharine HOBEIN (1828-1908) and John George EBERTING (or George Martin EBERTING) I've found it both ways, are:

William E. (1855-1937)
Adam (1856-1941)
Elizabeth (abt 1861)
Mike (abt 1864) - lived in Oklahoma
Martin Thomas (1865-1938)
Carrie Bell (1868-1961)
Another Unknown Child

I had a hard time connecting the family because I can't find them in the 1870 census, but I got a the tip off from Minnie Belle Eberting Fowler's obituary, who was a daughter of William E. Eberting - she had one surviving aunt: Carrie Carleton, Clinton, MO.

I'm not sure, but I believe the Henry County Courthouse in Clinton has local naturalization records. I don't get to town much anymore.

Black Angus cattle. They were like pets to him and he relished the quiet, peaceful life of retirement. Paul Eaton married Jessie Lee McCombs of Calhoun on October 19, 1928. She was born March 3, 1911. She preceded him in death on December 9, 1996. They had two children, both born in Calhoun. A daughter, Dorla Dean, was born September 10, 1929. She married Charles Keil Kemper of Clinton March 1, 1951. A son, Paul McVey Eaton, Jr., was born August 30, 1934. He married Mary Lou Foster of Clinton on October 19, 1957. Paul was a self-made businessman who achieved success even though fate denied him a formal education. He loved his family and took great delight in the accomplishments of his son, Paul McVey, Jr. and his daughter, Dorla Dean Eaton Kemper. He was determined to have both children graduate from college and be better prepared for life. Mr. Eaton and his wife, Jessie, were always there to encourage, love and help their children, as well as their grandchildren. In return they were also much loved and respected. He is survived by his son, Paul, and his wife, Mary Lou, Blue Springs, and his daughter, Dorla Dean, and her husband, Charles Keil Kemper, Granite Bay, California. He leaves five grandchildren, Kevin, Susan, Kara, Jeanne and Michael. He leaves eight great-grandchildren, Scott Paul, Christine, Amy Renee, Dana Charles, Eva Louise, Gavin McVey, Jesse Owen and Little Michael, seven months of age. He also leaves a close and dear sister-in-law, Eva McCombs Smith, and her husband, Wayne, who reside in Lake Jackson, Texas. We know that happiness is possible only when we reach out to attain constructive goals. We know that man must toil, his mind be happily occupied and his heart pure, to achieve the inner satisfaction which is peace. Paul Eaton lived that kind of life. He sowed good deeds where fields were fallow. He planted seeds of caring, sharing, loving and giving. He can now enjoy the final harvest of his life. Henry Van Dyke wrote, "There is only one way to get ready for immortality and that is to love this life and live it bravely and faithfully and cheerfully as best we can." Paul Eaton was a kind and gentle man who lived his life bravely and faithfully and cheerfully. He died on the 24th day of July, 2001, at Truman Medical Center in Kansas City. We are grateful for the life of Paul McVey Eaton, Sr. and know that the has passed on to a new and even lovelier world with his loving wife, Jessie Lee. She was born September 10, 1919, in Calhoun, the daughter of James W. and Lillie F. (Moreland) McGinness. She attended Coal High School and graduated from Clinton High School in 1937. On March 8, 1942, Marie married Robert M. Eberting, Jr. To this union three sons were born, all preceding her in death. Died

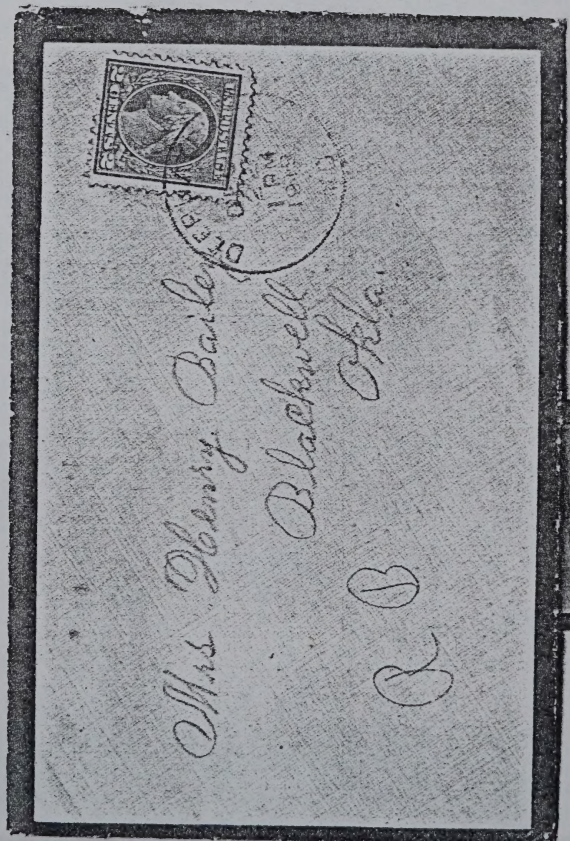
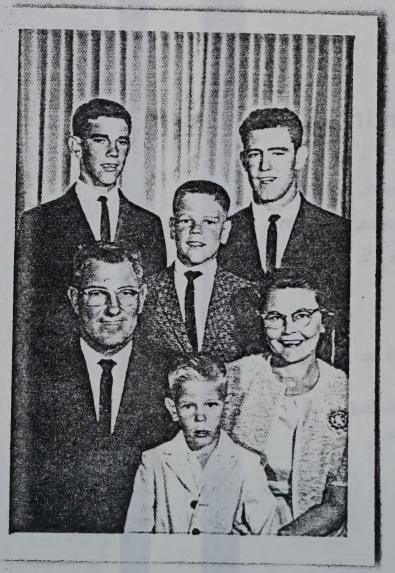
Clara Elizabeth Eberting Fry

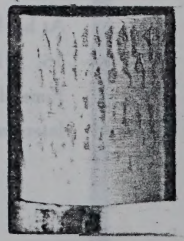
At her home in Deepwater, Missouri, December 15, 1919, age 28 years, 3 months, 15 days
Funeral services conducted by Rev. S. J. Walkup
Interment in Englewood cemetery

Precious darling you have left us,
Left us, yes forever more,
But we hope to meet our darling,
On that bright and happy shore.



Mark 10-14





A dear little baby came one day
To love us awhile then be on his way;
He'd coo & coo as babies do
And smile so sweet when he looked at you,
He'd wave his arms & kick his feet
And roll around "He was so sweet"
But Jesus needed a jewel rare-
So he called Edy Mae to shine there up
Our arms are empty, our hearts are sore but wait awhile, but be a little more.

Aunt Jude told Aunt Hildred that Bessie and Raymond had to marry possibly in Medford or Wellington.

Aunt Tott and Grandma Turner were cousins and sister-in-law's. Our Great Grandma and Tott's Mom were sisters.

Uncle Edd Hickey married Aunt Ollie Wilson twice, plus he had two other wives. Dad (LKF) said Ollie once murdered a man. Uncle Edd's daughter, Ruth married a Baptist minister and was disowned by Uncle Edd.

Great Grandpa and Grandma Turner belong to the Universal Church.

Bessie Hickey Cook has a son named Albert, but call Woodrow, she called him "Judge."

Grandpa Thomas Patrick Hickey left Grandma Angeline Hickey and took their small son, Tom. Tom returned after TPH's death, but by then he was grown. Before Ruby and I (Hildred) went to school we stayed with Grandma Hickey while Mom and Dad worked. At that time Uncle Tom was unmarried and lived with Grandma Hickey. Grandpa Hickey was 21 when he came to America. One brother stayed in New York—don't know his name. Grandma Hickey was born in 1836 so probably married at 18. Census Records - Enumeration Districts

U.S. Federal Census records are divided into groups by state, then county, and in many cases by townships and enumeration districts as well. Enumeration districts are subdivisions used by census takers and other governmental representatives to further break down the geography of a given area beyond the county and/or township level. Browsing the census records by enumeration district allows a researcher to see their ancestor in context of their closest neighbors. You may learn additional information about your ancestor by observing their neighbors over a succession of several years.

Juanita, am going through my Turner book and have a note to ask you if you have a picture of your boys with Grandma Turner?
Or perhaps a picture of them with your mother and dad?
Have a picture of De and Sally with Grandma Turner.
De is living barely, Jack had a cornea transplant earlier this year and I have just had knee replacement surgery. Seems now all we do is go from one Dr. to another! But keeps us busy.
Have found some information on the Turner boys, Alvie, Richard "Dick" and Joe Norman. When I get to "in order" I will send you a copy.
Hope all is well with you, would love to hear from you.

I shall not want . . . He maketh me to lie down in green pastures . . . He leadeth me beside the still waters . . . He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for Thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over . . . Notes

Per sister, Hildred Turner Severe Gobel to Deanna Fulton Barnes Patterson:
James Alvie/Alvin served in WWI with T 90th Division and was gased while overseas, spent some time in France after was was over. Lived in Stockton, California, when he disappeared. Last time he was heard from, was a telegram from Sacramento the day after Grandpa Turner died. They did not tell me about this telegram. I found it at Mom's. Bob Severe was just a toddler about like Mike (Barnes) when Alvie left home. The telegram was signed "Your son, James A. Turner. Mom was still alive when I found it, but I don't know what happed to it. Suspect Bessie. This is all I know about him. There is a picture here of the Turner School in Missouri. I recognize, maybe, 3 (people) Alvie, Ivan and Dick--Dick because he looks so much like Bud's oldest boy. Not the twins.

Every time I've driven to San Francisco along Interstate 280, I've seen the Golden Gate National Cemetery over to the side. I finally made a plan to take the exit and visit it and take some photographs. It is a National Cemetery of the US and is huge - about 160 acres.

It is very soberting to see so many tombstones in one place and think of all the wars fought and all the men that have died violent deaths over the centuries. I felt fortunate to be able to be there on a sunny day and a fancy digital camera taking pictures rather than bullets.

It is very satisfying to see so many headstones in one place and know all of the work Hugh did at the time that they died which dates back to the Civil War. The beginning is to be said to be the end of a story that is a very close memory being created. One time there.

HUSBAND - Richard S "Dick" TURNER

Per his sister, Hildred Turner Severe Gobel to Deanna Fulton Barnes Patterson:

Richard or maybe just "Dick" middle name no known. Think you are right about the year. He was born in 1899. For some reason, I think he and Bessie were born in November. I could be wrong. Remember he went into the Marines after WWII started. He was still on a ship the last time Mom heard, which was before Xmas as he sent her a card and $10, saying he would be on the waters some place Xmas and to buy herself some candy for him. I saw the card. I lived on E. Kansas (Street), it would have been after Charles death November 12, 1942. (Charles was Severe, Hildred's first husband). He told Bud (his son, Cecil Emmett Turner who lived with John Roger and Mary Ann (Grandparents), that his ship would dock in Seattle, Washington, and to meet him as he wanted to come see his grandchildren. Bud did (meet the ship), but his ship never came or he wasn't on any of those that did. He tried to find him, but never did that I know of. No one knows where Bud is now. Jude thought he may have went back to Alaska.

Married Julia (Jude) Peigel 11 Jun 1919, she was 18 and he was 20.

District Count Docket, February Vol #4

Dick Turner guilty of wreckless and drunk driving on 12 Jun 1927. Sentenced 15 Jun 1927 to $50 and 90 days and until fine paid. Bond set at $1,500. Taken to McAlister Prison 26 June 1927. Joe Goble, 445 E. Bridge, Blackwell was one of the witnesses against him.

REDEFINING RETIREMENT LIVING

May 13, 2008

Barbara Fulton
2004 S.E. Osage
Bartlesville, OK 74003

Dear Barbara Fulton,

I wanted to invite you to these upcoming events at Epworth Villa:

June 1st through June 6th has been designed "Homecoming Week" at Epworth Villa. The week will begin with our annual Memorial Service on June 1st at 5:30 p.m. in the Brill Chapel. We invite you and your family to join us as we remember residents who have passed away during the last year. On Monday, June 2nd, we will have a rally in the morning with games on the lawn, including an electric scooter obstacle course. On Tuesday, the talent of our staff will be displayed at a Variety Show in the afternoon. On Wednesday evening, we will turn our front lawn into a drive-in movie theater, along with a cook-out. On Thursday afternoon, we will have a reception for community leaders, first responders and representatives of the Oklahoma Conference of the United Methodist Church. The final event of the week will take place Friday night with a homecoming dance for residents.

As we look forward to that time of the year when we remember loved ones, most of us have a special person in our life we remember with affection. When you strongly value such a relationship, you may want to consider commemorating this special friend or relative with a memorial gift. While creating a thoughtful remembrance, you demonstrate appreciation for the joy and benefits of that treasured relationship.

The enclosed brochure, "Giving Through Living Memorials", describes a variety of ways to make a memorial gift --- whether through cash, stock, real estate or other type of property, or through a bequest. You can enjoy remembering someone close to you; and, at the same time, help Epworth Villa achieve its mission of "Resident First Care: Providing a superior quality of life for older adults in a Christian environment." Please consider honoring or memorializing a loved one with a tax-deductible donation to the Benevolent Fund by completing the reply coupon. While gifts of any amount are greatly appreciated, your gift of $1,000 or more entitles you to an engraved "leaf" on the Trees of Love sculpture as a lasting memorial to your loved one.

If you have additional needs or questions about making a memorial gift, do not hesitate to contact me. I am happy to help in any way.

Sincerely,

Richard M. Woodard

Husband: Ivan Guy Turner

Notes

Per his sister, Hildred Turner Severe Gobel, to Deanna Fulton Barnes Patterson:
Ivan G. Turner - G. stands for Guy. Birth February 4, 1897. Death 11 September 1958. Burial in Arnett Baptist Church, Sunday, Sep 14 at 2 p.m. Minister Rev. Tom Cotton. Place of Interment, DeBolt Cemetery, Arnett, OK. Doesn't say where he was born, but since Dick was born in Missouri. He was older, so probably was also. Married Edna Criswell in Arnett, but don't know when or where. He was a member of the Christian Church here in Blackwell. Served in WWI, but don't think he was ever sent overseas. Think the war ended before he got there.

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be
no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For though from out

The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot
face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be
no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For though from out
our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot
face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

About 1930 census

Genealogists rely on the 1930 census, the 15th United States Federal Census, to find information about families living in the United States during the Great Depression. The census includes the names, ages, and other information about families living in the United States in 1930 and enumerates the population living in the 48 states, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. The 1930 census also includes information about Native Americans living on reservations, American Indians living on Alaskan reservations, and American Indians living on Hawaiian reservations. The 1930 census also includes information about American citizens living in foreign countries, such as military personnel, employees of the federal government, and their families living abroad.

The Twenty-third Psalm

PS. 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

MECHANIC'S BODY FOUND IN GARAGE

Inquest into the dethe of Joe N. Turner, 35, garage mechanic, Saturday was postponed until next Thursday when District Attorney George Reese asked for more time to investigate. Turner's body was found in the Skinner and Skinner garage at about 7 o'clock Saturday morning by a fellow garage worker, Coy Britton, who said he had talked to Turned only half an hour earlier, and had been working near the spot where the body was found. Sheriff Howell Gage said the circumstances were "singularly unusual," but that evidence pointed to suicide.

NO FINGERPRINTS

The Sheriff checked shotgun found near the body for fingerprints, but none of them were plain enough to be distinquished. He said powder burns on the left hand and round the mouth indicated that he had thrust the gun into his mouth and pulled the trigger. Part of the head was blown away by the explosion of the 10 gauge shotgun. Britton told officers that he found Turner at the garage when he went to work at 6:30 o'clock this morning, and that Turner told him he went to work early because he awakened early in the morning and could not sleep.

IN GOOD SPIRITS

Britton said Turner appeared to be in good spirits Saturday morning and Friday night, when he worked late. He said he did not hear the shot and that apparently he had worked within a few feet of Turner's body for half an hour before he discovered what had happened. Employees of the Western Auto Supply, next door to the farage where Turner worked, said Turner came into their shop several times every day and always had been in good humor. So far as could be learned, his health was good. Sheriff Gage said, despite the unusual circumstances, surrounding Turner's death, he could not believe it was connected in any way with the case of Faye Stripling, his sister-in-law, who was found unconscious on a roadside Sunday morning after being beater mercilessly. "From what we can learn," Gage said, "Turner hadn't taken any interest in the Stripling case. He was a man who minded his own business, and I just can't associate him with that case."

FUNERAL PENDING

"We know very little about it now, however, and our investigation may reveal something startling. All I can say is we're trying to get to the bottom of it."

The gun found near Turner's body had been laying in the garage ever since hunting season, officers were told. Funeral arrangements were awaiting work from Turner's parents, who live in Blackwell, Oklahoma. The was at the West Funeral Chapel. Turner lived in Carlsbad about three years, coming here from Oklahoma. He is survived by his widow, Cuba Lee Turner. There were no children.

Researching an Ancestor's Murder in New Mexico

Posted by Diane Haddad Family Tree Magazine OnLine

Question: I found out my great-great-grandfather Juan Chavez was murdered in Valencia County, NM, in 1883, but that's all I know. How can I find out more about this story?

Answer: Start by thinking about the kind of records a murder might generate: death records, a coroner's investigation, newspaper coverage, a criminal trial. Let's take these one at a time:

New Mexico became a state in 1912 and didn't mandate death certificates until 1920, so one may not exist for your ancestor. Since some counties kept vital records earlier than the state did, contact the Valencia county courthouse at Box 969, Los Lunas, NM 87031, (505) 866-2073.

Newspapers might have published obituaries, as well as articles about the murder, investigation and trial. New Mexico's state archives and library (http://www.nmstatelibrary.org/) \have large historical newspaper collections. Subscription sites Ancestry.com http://www.ancestry.com/search/rectype/periodicals/news/dblist.aspx?tp=2&p=34 and GenealogyBank
http://www.genealogybank.com/gbnk/newspapers/sourcelist/#New%20Mexico have a few New Mexico newspapers covering 1883 in their searchable databases. Libraries in Valencia County also may have old newspapers.

Also look for probate records, which are created when a court distributes a deceased person's estate. Valencia county probate court records are microfilmed at the Family History Library (you can tell by running a place search of the online catalog on the county name).
http://www.familysearch.org/eng/Library/FHLC/frameset_fhlc.asp you can rent the film by visiting a Family History Center http://www.familysearch.org/eng/library/FHC/frameset_fhc.asp near you. First rent the index (film #2312158), and if there's a file on your ancestor, note the packet number. Then you can request the roll of film covering that probate packet.

Mysterious or violent deaths often led to a coroner's investigation, usually part of court or police records. A search of the New Mexico state archives' online catalog http://www.nmcpr.state.nm.us/archives/gencat_cover.htm on /Valencia court records/ brings up a listing for collection #1974-031, which has county records from 1847 to 1979. Coroners' inquests from 1882 to 1908 are part of the justice of the peace records.

You could visit the archives in Santa Fe http://www.nmcpr.state.nm.us/archives/location-ahsd.htm to search, or e-mail a research request
http://www.nmcpr.state.nm.us/archives/location-ahsd.htm
There may be fees associated with research requests.

If someone was arrested for the murder, records from a criminal trial would answer a lot of questions. The state archives' collection #1978-003 has records for US territorial and New Mexico district courts covering Valencia County, including criminal cases from 1852 to 1912. In this collection, series V, file 13-24, covers 1852 to 1909.

These early case files aren't numbered, and without the accused's name, you'll need to examine the records pretty closely to see which case involves your ancestor.

The Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

MR. AND MRS. J. W. PASLEY, III

Sally Jo Severe Becomes Bride Of James William Pasley, III, In First Baptist Church Here

Pedestal baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums, lighted tapers in branched candelabra and an archway entwined with greenery formed the setting in the First Baptist church as Miss Sally Jo Severe became the bride of John William Pasley, III, of Edmond.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Goble, 242 Enlow. She is the daughter of the late Charles E. Severe. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pasley, Jr., Fort Worth, Tex.

Dr. Harry M. Roark read vows of the double ring ceremony at 7 p.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Byler, Oklahoma City, organist, played a program of nuptial selections and accompanied the vocalist, Miss Kay Barr, Jefferson.

Given in marriage by Mr. Goble, the bride wore a dress of white brocaded bridal satin fashioned with an elongated bodice, back panel extening into a train and a high front neckline which came to a deep V in back.

Her shoulder length veil of white tulle fell from a miniature princess crown of hand pleated tulle and seed pearls and she wore long white gloves. Her wedding bouquet of two white orchids was carried atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Charles Bridges, Lincoln, Neb., sister of the bride and matron of honor, wore a kelly green sheath dress with a large bow forming a bustle effect in back. She carried a colonial bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums and her picture hat of white tulle was banded with material which matched that of her gown.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Max Barnes, cousin of the bride, Blackwell; Mrs. Jack Rogers, Bartlesville; and Miss Reba Norris, Lawton.

Their dresses were of bronze taffeta and their picture hats were identical to that of the matron of honor. They carried colonial bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Flower girls were Carrie Lee Bridges, Lincoln, niece of the bride, and Janet Sue Severe, Midwest City, also a niece. Their dresses were of kelly green.

Harrel Dean Ashby of Edmond served as best man and ushers were Melvin Shope, Kent Spalding and Steve Savage, all of Edmond.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Goble chose a beige lace dress with green and beige accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a sheath dress of pastel blue with a navy velveteen coat. Her flowers also were white carnations.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony. Assisting were Miss Peggy O'Neill of Marshall, Miss Sue Stevens of Mustang and Mrs. David Thayer, Blackwell. Mrs. Robert Severe, sister-in-law of the bride, Midwest City, kept the guest book.

When the couple left for a short wedding trip, Mrs. Pasley wore a fitted suit in charcoal grey fashioned with a cowl collar and peplum effect at the waistline. Her accessories were white and grey and her flowers were the orchids from her wedding bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Pasley are at home at 916 East Campbell, Edmond, where they attend Central State college.

Out of town guests were Linda Savage, Mary Margaret Feken, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Collene, D. L. Blake, Jerry Blake, Melvin Shope, Faye Thoresen and Beverly Easley, Edmond; Mrs. Charles Byler, Oklahoma City; Donna Bowen, Perry; Carolyn Snow, Wheatland; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lang, Mrs. C. B. Lang, Tulsa; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pasley, Jr., Fort Worth; Mrs. Clarence Barr and Dick Barr, Jefferson; Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Covey, Carol and Bob, Tulsa.

Nina M. Norris, Cyril; Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Severe and Janet, Midwest City; Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bridges and Carrie Lee, Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. Ollie Million, Kildare; Mr. and Mrs. Jack K. Mark 10-14

a dear little baby
came one day
To love us awhile
then be on his way:
He'd coo and coo
as babys do
and smile so sweet
when he looked at you.
He'd wave his hands
and kick his feet
and roll around.
"He was so sweet"
But Jesus needed
a jewel rare
So he called Edy Mae
to shine up there,
Our arms are empty
Our hearts are sore
but we're happy to know
He'll suffer no more.

Easter

Say not that death is king, that night is lord,
That loveliness is passing, beauty dies;
Nor tell me hope's a vain deceptive dream
Fate lends to life, a pleasing, luring gleam
To light awhile the earth's despondent skies,
Till death brings swift and sure its dread reward.
Say not that youth deceives, but age is true,
That roses quickly pass, while cypress bides,
That happiness is foolish, grief is wise,
That stubborn dust shall choke our human cries.
Death tells new worlds, and life immortal hides
Beyond the veil, which shall all wrongs undo.
This was the tale God breathed to me at dawn
When flooding sunrise told the night was gone.

YE OLDE CONDUCTOR, Clarence A. Duggins, though his face, years and alertness belie that title disbarks from his last run on the Frisco Mar. 3. He is now en route to Colorado where he says he is going to catch up on his fishing—a favorite sport.

C. Duggins Says Goodbye to Frisco After 36 Years' Duty

Left Mar. 5 to Manage Ralph Julian's Stevens Motel in Colorado

Clarence A. Duggins, "Doug" to his many friends, said goodbye to the Frisco Railroad Mar. 3, and is just letting his 36 years with the line slip into a sort of pleasant oblivion.

"I like to fish," said Doug Tuesday morning, "and I plan to catch up now. When we get to Colorado I am going to let my wife run the Stevens Motel, and I am going to take off for the mountains."

They left Clinton Wednesday morning with the plan of spending a short time in Tulsa, Okla., with her sister, Mrs. Ruth Veale and family, then are going on to Burlington, Colo., where their son-in-law, Ralph Julian of Springfield, has a motel, "The Stevens," for which he traded last summer. It has been closed this winter, but under the direction of Mrs. Duggins, may get on a year-round basis.

Doug, one of the five children of R. A. and Ada Yeager Duggins,

Duggins Goodbye

was born in Clinton. Here he grew up, attended the Clinton schools, also the Christian Church, and as a young man learned the barber trade, taking his first job with Ike Baker in the OK Shop. Later he worked for Guy Williams, but thinking there was a greater future with the railroad, he went to work for the old "Leaky Roof" that ran through Clinton between Kansas City and Springfield years ago. After two years with them he went to the Frisco line in 1922. starting as a brakeman, and was a conductor at the end of this railroad career this month. He is a member of the ORC, conductors' organization, and has a good record of strict faithfulness to duty and conscientious discharge of responsibility invested in him, a fit example for others to follow.

The Dugginses have rented their new home on East Jefferson to Dr. Arturo Gonzalez and family who took possession this week. Their one daughter, Mrs. Ralph Julian, husband and family have been residents of Springfield almost two years. They have six grandchildren. The oldest, Mrs. Kenneth Shepherd, and small great-grandson, live in Clinton, so ties with Missouri and Clinton will still be strong, and friends will hope, with good luck, to see them often.

"I have really enjoyed my association with the men on the Frisco," said Doug as he waved goodbye. "They are fine fellows, and I'll never forget my years with them and the railroad. It's a pretty good line, still, though times have changed. . . . . it still has a mighty important place in this section of the United States."

Mr. Duggins has a brother, J. H. Duggins in Los Angeles, Calif., a machinist there; and two sisters, Mrs. Roscoe Galbreath and Miss Nellie Duggins, a teacher, in Casper, Wyo. One brother is dead.

DIES IN WYOMING

Funeral services for Mrs. R. A. Duggins, 719 East Jefferson Street, Clinton, who died Sunday, Dec. 22, at Memorial Hospital, Casper, Wyo., were held at 2:00 p. m., Dec. 27, at Consalus Funeral Home. The Rev. Vernon Blankenship, Christian Church pastor, officiating. Eugene R. Consalus sang "Death Is Only a Dream" and "Beyond the Sunset."

The body was tenderly laid to rest beside the late husband of the deceased in Englewood. Casket bearers were V. A. Meierotto, Everett Tschebrun, L. G. Woods, Willis Phillips, A. J. Hood and C. L. Grimes.

Mrs. Duggins, native Henry Countian and beloved resident of Clinton, had gone to Casper early in September of this year to be near her daughters, Mrs. Galbraith and Miss Nellie Duggins whose homes are within a block of each other at Casper.

Suffering with a heart ailment, Mrs. Duggins had entered the hospital where early on the Sabbath morning death came in her sleep.

A member of the First Baptist Church of Clinton for many years, Mrs. Duggins was a consecrated Christian, following closely the example set by her Master.

Good, kind and gentle, her years were rich in the love she radiated to others. Her great mother heart reached out to all who touched her life, and the Duggins home exemplified the true meaning of the word.

Carrie Evans Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Evans, was born June 4th, 1890 and was Married to Marvin Turner, Dec. 22, 1907. She became a member of the Baptist church in 1904, and her death occurred December 18th, 1930.

Our loved one lies in her casket,
Her form will be hid from our view,
Her spirit will be with bright angels,
In a world to her bright and new.

Oh now we will each one miss her!
Miss the face that so late wore a smile.
We may not long stay behind her;
Perhaps just a short little while.

How long she suffered! our dear one,
We're glad to know she's at rest;
To know that forever and ever
She leans on the dear Savior's breast.

She was loved as a wife and a neighbor,
Loved as a sister and daughter, too;
Loved by her Sunday school pupils,
Loved because she was true.

Our home is so dark and lonely,
And not one of us understands why
God has taken our dear Carrie from us,
To his home far away in the sky.

We know when we go in the morning
Out among our lovely flowers,
We cut the richest and rarest,
And cut them because they are ours.

Perhaps when God comes to his garden
To get flowers for his mantle above,
He takes from us our fairest
To show us his fatherly love.

Though we cannot know the reason
That each of us patiently waits,
And our Carrie lovingly waiting
To open for us heaven's gate.

Yes, we'll leave it all to the Savior,
His goodness and mercy and love,
And one day we'll meet with our loved one,
An unbroken family above.

CLARKE WRIGHT.

Sunset and evening star;
And one clear call for me!
And may there be
no moaning of the Bar
When I put out to sea.

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot—
face to face,
When I have crost the bar.

OC man dies in tool shop accident

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — An employee at a southeast Oklahoma City tool shop died after getting caught in pipe machinery, authorities said.

The 65-year-old man, whose name was not released, was in cardiac arrest when firefighters arrived Thursday at Sasco Rental Tools and Machine Shop, authorities said.

He died later at a hospital.

Workers were threading a 30-foot pipe section when the man got tangled in the end of it, manager Marvin Sasnett said.

"This pipe grabbed his clothing and just started winding him up," Sasnett said.

The worker running the machine shut it off, but the man was already severely injured, authorities said.

U.S.-WORLD

Genevieve de Gaulle-Anthonioz, a former resistance fighter and niece of late French President Charles de Gaulle, died Thursday in Paris after a long illness, French media reported. She was 81.

President Jacques Chirac paid homage to de Gaulle-Anthonioz, a modest woman who joined the French resistance in 1940 at the age of 19 following the Nazi occupation of Paris.

"By the strength of her engagement, her unfailing determination and her limitless courage, she symbolized the spirit of the resistance," Chirac said on France Info radio Friday.

In 1943, de Gaulle-Anthonioz was arrested and deported to Ravensbruck, a concentration camp for women in Germany.

In her later years, de Gaulle-Anthonioz dedicated herself to advocating on behalf of the poor and homeless.

Retired Lt. Gen. Vernon A. Walters, an aide to seven presidents who also served as U.S. ambassador to the United Nations and Germany, has died. He was 85.

Walters died Sunday of undisclosed causes at Good Samaritan Medical Center in West Palm Beach, Fla.

The internationally decorated Army veteran had a long career in public service. He helped shape the Marshall Plan after World War II, served as deputy director of the Central Intelligence Agency during Watergate, briefed Henry Kissinger on the North Vietnamese during the Vietnam War and became a member of the NATO Standing Group.

Longtime friend Gen. Alexander Haig called him "a man of towering integrity" and "one of the most remarkable public servants I have ever known."

Born in New York City, Walters' family moved to Europe when he was 6. There he learned in French, Spanish, Italian and German. Later he became fluent in Portuguese, Chinese and Russian.

Walters' linguistic skills and photographic memory opened doors for him during his 35-year military career and later diplomatic work.

Brig. Gen. Ke Pauk, a former Khmer Rouge military officer who led bloody purges and who was a prime candidate to appear before a future genocide tribunal, died Friday of liver disease in Anlong Veng, Cambodia. He was 72.

Ke Pauk was remembered for leading bloody purges in northern and eastern Cambodia during the Khmer Rouge's 1975-79 rule, which was blamed for the deaths of 1.7 million people from starvation, diseases, execution and overwork.

After the radical communists were toppled in 1979 by an invading Vietnamese army, Ke Pauk fought alongside Khmer Rouge leader Pol Pot in the group's guerrilla war against the Vietnamese-installed government.

He defected to Prime Minister Hun Sen's government in 1998 and was appointed general in the Cambodian army, a post he held until his death.

Born in Mexia, Texas, Capone spent most of her early adult life in Oklahoma.

She attended Hollins College in Virginia and the University of Oklahoma before marrying Dan Savage and settling in Tulsa.

Susan Savage said her mother was very active in the arts and in the Episcopal Church.

Capone was one of the first members of the Tulsa Opera Guild, which was formed in 1955 by women in close cooperation with the Tulsa Opera.

She was a past president of the Tulsa Philharmonic Women's Association as well as a member of the Junior League of Tulsa, the Junior Auxiliary of the Day Nursery and the Women of St. John's Episcopal Church.

Later in her life, she did consulting work for small-town newspapers and chambers of commerce on how to give presentations.

Capone also operated a charm school.

She left Tulsa in the mid-1960s.

Savage said her mother "always had us believing that we were people who were intelligent and had everything to offer the world."

"There was a real genuine humanitarian side about her," the mayor said.

"That was a value that she instilled in her children. She loved everyone. She just loved people."

Capone is survived by three daughters, Diane Savage of Stockdale, Texas, Susan Savage of Tulsa and Sarah Savage of Alexandria, Va.; three sons, Dan C. Savage of Waco, Texas, Scott Savage of Tulsa and Tripp Ashwill of Houston; a brother, Robert Chandler of Midland, Texas; and seven grandchildren.

Rogers County ambulance service still available

CLAREMORE — Emergency services officials say Rogers County will have ambulance service despite the scheduled April 1 demise of CARE Ambulance Service of Claremore.

CARE officials gave notice Monday that the company will close as a result of financial strains caused by changes in Medicare reimbursement policies and insurance costs. The service covered Inola, Foyil and much of rural Rogers County.

Claremore/Rogers County Emergency Management, the state Health Department, Northwest Rogers County Fire District and three other ambulance services in the county — Gold Cross Ambulance Service, Emergency Medical Services Plus and the Oologah-Talala Emergency Medical Services District — have the ability to provide countywide service beginning April 1, officials said.

The services will be providers until officials look at the options and make a policy decision.

All of the services are licensed to provide advanced life support, with paramedics handling most calls.

Also, each service has agreed to move equipment and take other steps as needed to ensure that residents who now are served by CARE will have ambulance service after April 1.

Curbside goods turn garbage day into bazaar

There came a knock at the door about half past six in the morning on one of the garbage days.

Garbage days are no longer dog days in the neighborhood, meaning dogs are not the only ones stopping at what has been boxed and bagged along the curb.

A good garbage day can be almost like a holiday in some neighborhoods.

The knock on the door at 6:30 a.m. had been made by a woman in fashionable running gear, shorts over tights with a baggy sweat shirt.

She asked about the two iron things at the curb.

The question was, did they go?

When one of the first of the morning observers asks about the two iron things, it's natural to think, "Wait a minute, maybe they only made five sets in the world. Maybe they were on the cover of the spring issue of Iron Thing Monthly."

These iron works were black and heavy and didn't resemble anything in particular, perhaps owls once, long ago. One had been used as a door stop in an out-of-the way room.

The woman who was almost too neatly dressed to run was informed that the iron pieces were, indeed, up for grabs.

She was very pleased and went to the curb to get whatever those things were and got more exercise than she had probably bargained for as she toted off the weighty garbage-day surprises.

Discovery day: Here is the way it works on Discovery Day on the curbside garbage run.

Besides iron things, you can also find steel things, wood things, aluminum things and, occasionally, copper and brass things.

The items that you used to have to pay somebody to haul off are now placed beside bags or boxes of rubber containers of garbage and are available to be claimed on a first-come, first-served basis, neighbors and residents of the 'hood preferred.

One person's steel thing is another's garden art.

Whereas you might not pay $7.50 for a tin thing at garage or yard sales, you will think seriously about taking home something from a curb display when the item's price is nothing.

Gone are the days when somebody jogs or walks around garbage.

Now people run to garbage.

It's not like you're imposing or intruding.

If something is beside the garbage at the curb, the implication is clear.

Have a look.

Some of the best people are casting a glance.

If your garbage pickup is early in the morning, then it is best to put out your unnecessary things for viewing the afternoon before.

It's an unexpected urban scene, a family standing together, admiring what's next to somebody's garbage.

Every once in a while, something with a clearly recognizable shape can be found at the curb beside the Rubbermaid.

Though it's not required, people on the same block almost always knock and let you know where your two-legged stool is going.

It's not uncommon to be out walking and have somebody come up to you with a hug and say how pleased they are to have your pot, crock, leather bag or wire thing.

These somewhat bizarre bazaars at the neighborhood curbs are probably doing a refuse collector's annual yard sale no good.

Some people might have difficulty imagining how something from the curb could work anywhere else.

Simply imagine it painted white.

TCC enrollment at crossroads

Budget cuts could mean turning away new fall students

BY OMER GILLHAM
World Staff Writer

For only the second time in school history, Tulsa Community College's spring enrollment has exceeded fall enrollment.

For most educators that's good news, but it has TCC officials remembering the 1980s and the depressing budget cuts that were caused by the oil bust.

President Dean VanTrease sounded the alarm in January that TCC could expect to turn away hundreds of students next fall if enrollment trends continued during a time when budget cuts are being mandated.

"Colleges are still trying to get over cuts from 20 years ago," said TCC regent Martin Garber Jr., who said he witnessed the brutal slide of the 1980s. "To go back to that now, when we have all this momentum, is an option we should avoid at all costs."

Budget cuts again are on the radar screen as state lawmakers face a widening budget hole.

New estimates from the Office of State Finance show that the Legislature will have about $350 million less to spend on appropriations for next year.

Even before Friday's bad revenue forecast, TCC was expecting a 2 percent decline in state appropriations.

Speaking at the Board of Regents meeting Wednesday, Garber said turning away an estimated 2,000 prospective students next fall because of a staff shortage "could kill our momentum."

He said the atmosphere at the Capitol is "negative, negative, negative" when higher education officials bring up the subject of more money to meet

Labor commissioner backpeddling on case's relevance to right to work

▶ Brenda Reneau Wynn says the state's new labor law isn't really what the Baldwin Steel case is about.

BY BRIAN BARBER
World Staff Writer

Brenda Reneau Wynn

"We probably shouldn't have presented it as a right-to-work matter."

Oklahoma Labor Commissioner Brenda Reneau Wynn said Friday that she is no longer calling her standoff with Tulsa's Baldwin Steel and the Teamsters the first true test of the state's new right-to-work law.

Instead, Reneau Wynn said, it is a matter of state labor regulations that existed long before the law was passed Sept. 25.

"We probably shouldn't have presented it as a right-to-work matter," she said. "That was the catalyst, but it really doesn't have anything to do with our position."

Baldwin Steel officials recently contacted Reneau Wynn when 19 of its 68 employees asked that dues and fees for Teamsters Local 523 no longer be withheld from their paychecks, despite "checkoff" agreements that they had signed obligating them to pay the union for at least a year and to give proper notice before quitting.

Reneau Wynn touted the case as "the first battleground" for the right-to-work law and ordered the company this week to stop the deductions.

She even accused the Teamsters, who negotiated a new contract with Baldwin Steel since the law's passage, of trying to circumvent right to work and threatened legal action if the firm didn't follow her instructions.

But the crux of Reneau Wynn's argument — that the payroll deductions for union dues are not allowable under state regulations — seemed to conflict with the state's recorded position on right to work in a federal lawsuit.

In the state's Jan. 31 response to the lawsuit filed last fall by labor organizations in U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Oklahoma, it is conceded that the federal government has jurisdiction over payroll deductions for union dues and fees, according to court documents.

It is also admitted that checkoff agreements, like the ones at Baldwin Steel, are permissible, records show.

The attorney who wrote the response, John Hermes of Oklahoma City, confirmed those points and said they were made to show that they could be thrown out of the language of the right-to-work law and the rest would still hold up.

However, Hermes said, he hasn't been involved in any discussions with the Labor Department and would not comment on the Baldwin Steel case.

Forged contract case nets $1.35 million

BY RHETT MORGAN
World Staff Writer

SAPULPA — An Owasso man has been awarded $1.35 million in damages from a financial corporation that tried to collect on a contract that was forged by his former wife.

Carl M. Carlson III, 29, was awarded $450,000 in actual damages and $900,000 in punitive damages against Conseco Finance Servicing Corp., said Carlson's attorney, Luke J. Wallace.

Creek County jurors returned the verdicts in District Judge Donald Thompson's court Thursday.

"Conseco never had a case," said Wallace, who, along with David Humphreys, represented Carlson. "All they had was power — power to falsely report bankruptcy and other negative things on his credit report in an effort to crush him and grind him up.

"Conseco either knew or didn't care that his signature had been forged on these contracts," Wallace said. "This is the worst case of financial abuse against an individual I've ever seen."

On April 28, 1998, a week after filing for divorce from Carlson, Robin M. Waltripp of Bristow had sought refinancing on a mobile home through Green Tree Financial Servicing Corp., now Conseco, court records show.

Waltripp would later admit in divorce proceedings that she forged Carlson's signature on those documents, Wallace said.

In June 1998, Carlson applied for a loan with a bank to refinance a pickup and was declined because of excessive debt.

Carlson received a copy of his credit report and discovered that Green Tree was reporting a debt of more than $25,000, records indicate.

In letters to and phone conversations with the financial firm, Carlson repeatedly said he never entered into any transaction with Green Tree or Conseco, documents claim.

Despite this, Wallace said, Conseco

Recount sought on bond ballots

▶ A $1 million Union schools measure got 59.96 percent of the vote. Passage required 60 percent.

BY SUSAN HYLTON
World Staff Writer

A manual recount of ballots has been ordered for a Union school district bond issue proposal that fell just a few votes shy of approval.

"They only needed a few votes to change the outcome, so I wasn't surprised," said Shelly Boggs, Tulsa County's Election Board assistant secretary.

Mark Robertson, Union's executive director of support services, submitted the petition seeking a recount of Tuesday's ballots because the vote margin was less than 1 percent.

Proposition II, a $1 million bond to buy school buses, received 59.96 percent of the vote — missing the 60 percent supermajority required to pass a school bond by a razor thin margin.

Cathy Burden

Tuesday's bond proposal defeat is "a perfect example of how the minority is able to rule on a bond issue," the Union superintendent said.

A two-vote swing would have changed the outcome, and Union officials have expressed their frustration with the supermajority requirement that they believe is unfair.

"It's a perfect example of how the minority is able to rule on a bond issue," Superintendent Cathy Burden said on election night.

The recount of the roughly 4,300 ballots will begin at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in District Judge David Peterson's Courtroom. Boggs said the Election Board will have two teams of four counters.

The deadline to challenge voting outcomes was 5 p.m. Friday.

Although it also saw a bond issue fail to gain a supermajority by fewer than 10 votes, Owasso Public Schools did not seek a recount.

Boggs said the Election Board's last manual count was for a state House race in 1988.

According to the state Election Board, she said, Oklahoma's electronic voting machines are 99 percent accurate. Because the machines scan ballots for black marks, Thursday's manual counters will not have to contend with chads.

But there were 49 "undervotes" in the Union balloting.

"We don't know if that means a person didn't vote or their vote was unreadable," Robertson said.

"After what we witnessed a year ago in November, I guess anything's possible," he said, referring to the contested outcome in Florida's presidential balloting.

PROBABLY NO SONS have followed in their fathers' steps more than in the Middle Ages, when the same occupation was sometimes carried on by a family for as long as two or three centuries. This practice was instrumental in the development of hereditary surnames, since a family of blacksmiths would all be known as "Smith." The name would be passed down to so many descendants that by the time a more adventurous son decided to try his hand at a new trade, the name of Smith would still cling to him.

The Turners, so named because they turned a lathe to fashion objects from wood, metal, or bone, were plying their trade in England long before the Norman invasion. Sire de la Tourneur arrived with the first wave of Normans, and from that time on, the English and Norman names blended together and became the modern Turner.

The Turners must have been an ambitious group, for more than 50 families of the name were honored with grants of arms. One Turner was made lord mayor of London in 1669, and another received the same honor exactly 100 years later. The name became known in Ireland as well, where Turners held offices such as high mayor of Dublin.

The coat of arms here has three black "fers-de-moline" on a white background. The black spots are called "ermine spots" and represent the tail of the animal, because the white represents the fur, which is associated with royalty.
